BB. The term “Identify” with respect to documents is defined to be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of the term “identify” with respect to documents in Local Civil Rule 26.3(c)(4).

CC. These requests incorporate the rules of construction set forth in Local Civil Rule 26.3(d).

DD. These requests call for Documents in Your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, regardless of where such Documents are located.

EE. All Documents must be produced in their entirety, including all attachments and enclosures, regardless of whether any portions thereof may contain information not requested. For example, all responsive emails shall be produced with their attachments, if any. Whenever a Document or group of Documents is removed from a file folder, binder, file drawer, file box, notebook, or the cover or container, a copy of the label of such cover or other container must be attached to the Document or group of Documents. All Documents are to be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business so the SEC can ascertain the files in which the Documents were located, their relative order in such files, and how such files were maintained.

FF. All Documents responsive to these requests that are maintained in the usual course of business in electronic format or ESI shall be produced in their native format along with software necessary to interpret such files if such software is not readily available. Production of ESI shall comply with the SEC’s Data Delivery Standards, which the SEC is providing contemporaneously herewith.

GG. Depending on the volume of Documents responsive to these requests, You may produce the Documents to the SEC via secure file transfers in multiple increments of 30 GB or less using the SEC's Accellion/Kiteworks system. Please contact the SEC's undersigned counsel for an email link to the system if You or Your counsel do not already have an active user account. Please be sure to include the undersigned counsel as well as ENF-CPU@SEC.GOV on the Accellion/Kiteworks email transmission, and ensure You do not copy any non-SEC email addresses, as the system does not permit those on a transmission. Also, please list "HO-14315 Litigation: SEC v. Coinbase, Inc. et al (Case No. 23 Civ 4738 (KPF))" and Identify yourself as the producing party on the subject line or in the body of the transmission. Note that it is best when using the Accellion/Kiteworks system to put Your files into a container (such as a WinZip or WinRAR file) before adding them to the email transmission. Chrome and Edge are the preferred web browsers for use with Accellion/Kiteworks.

HH. Otherwise, for larger productions, please send the Documents on a hard drive or other tangible deliverable to the following address along with a cover letter referencing Your name as the producing party and "HO-14315 Litigation: SEC v. Coinbase, Inc. et al (Case No. 23 Civ 4738 (KPF))" and notify the SEC's undersigned counsel when the production is made: ENF-CPU (U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission), 14420 Albemarle Point Place, Suite 102, Chantilly, VA 20151-1750.

II. Affix a Bates label or other identifying mark to each page of each Document or ESI produced.

JJ. You must make a thorough search for all Documents requested herein. If no Documents responsive to a particular request exist, You must so state in Your response. If a Document or category of Documents once existed, but have since been lost, destroyed, or are no longer in Your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, You must Identify each such Document or category of Documents in Your response and state the details Concerning the loss or destruction or the reason the Document or category of Documents no longer are in Your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control.

KK. These requests do not contemplate the production of Documents that You already produced to the SEC during its investigation of this matter. However, in the event that one or more Documents responsive to a particular request already were produced, You must state so in Your response and Identify the particular Document or Documents by Bates number so that the SEC can locate the materials in its file. If the Document or Documents do not contain Bates numbers, You must instead state the Date You produced the material to the SEC during the investigation and specify the particular subpoena and request number in response to which the material was produced.

LL. These requests do not contemplate the disclosure of privileged information and are intended to call only for the production of non-privileged Documents. Nevertheless, if You object in whole or in part to producing a Document because of a privilege, You must comply with Local Civil Rule 26.2 in responding to the relevant request.

MM. These requests are served without prejudice to the SEC's right to serve additional requests during the course of discovery.

NN. You are under a continuing obligation to supplement Your responses to these requests and any corresponding production of Documents under the circumstances specified in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(e).

OO. Unless otherwise specified below, the time period for these requests is January 1, 2019 through the present.
